PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi everyone,

Our Spring Award Show was a great success! We had a total of 62 submissions and approximately 80 attendees at the Monday evening event. We celebrated our 100th anniversary with cake, food and wine amongst great friends. Kudos to all our participants on their fine artwork. Congratulations to all our winners on their accomplishments (see last page for winners list). The jurors were quite impressed with the high quality of the works displayed. And last, but not least, a big thank you to all the volunteers who devoted time and effort to make this event a success.

Our sales at the OLT for the last few play periods have been averaging about 6 paintings a month. Hopefully the good weather and the spring blooms will keep these sales records up. This year the OLT will not be doing any renovation, therefore, artwork that will be submitted on July 7 will remain on the walls through the month of August and until the change over in September.

We must now get ready for our Annual General Meeting, coming up on June 12th, 7:00 pm, at the Sandy Hill Community Centre. We will at the AGM elect the Executive Committee. The slate of nominees includes several incumbents running for re-election as well as several new members who have graciously agreed to serve on the Executive. We are still trying to recruit a Social Convenor. Essentially, the Social Convenor brings coffee and treats to be enjoyed during the networking breaks on presentation nights. A two-person team would be ideal in that if one person cannot attend, the other would. If interested please let me or Françoise our secretary know, or come to the meeting and put your name forward for election. We are currently in negotiation to have our presentations at the Heron Community Centre. Confirmation is pending; we will announce the outcome at our AGM. The AGM will be followed by a painting critique. Please bring in one or two paintings you would like to have critiqued. I look forward to seeing you all at the AGM.

OAA Juried Spring Awards Show Winners!

Important Reminder: Please make sure your membership is renewed and in good standing!!

OAA membership fees must be currently in good standing in order to be qualified to submit your artwork/paintings at the Ottawa Little Theatre or participate in our OAA Award Shows during the year. Also please make sure to update your membership information on the Art Submission form or with Betty Sullivan - Membership Coordinator, for change of address or email -- thank you

The OAA would like to thank our special guest artist, Philip Craig, for his amazing demo presentation on oil painting last month. He expressed excellent ideas and techniques in his painting that I'm sure only inspired everyone there that night!

The New Art Festival

Central Park

June 9 – 10 2018

The Glebe, Ottawa

Come celebrate handmade art and the people who create it. The New Art Festival (TNAF) is Ottawa's longest-running outdoor art exhibit. This juried festival features handmade, one-of-a-kind artwork by nearly 200 visual artists working in a wide range of styles and media that reflect artistic excellence, innovation and strong craftsmanship.

TNAF takes place in beautiful Central Park in the downtown neighbourhood of the Glebe, Ottawa.

The park is located on the east side of Bank Street between Patterson Avenue and Clemow Avenue, just south of the Queensway.
