PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Greetings OAA Artists,

Thanks to those who donated work to the Cube Gallery silent auction. We were able to raise $255 for the Youth Services Bureau. The YSB thanked us for our efforts and donation and I pass that thanks onto you. Together we can make a difference.

Charles Ponee, held a solo show at the Nectar Gallery during the Month of September. Congratulations to him on his initiative! If anyone else is interested in doing a weekend solo, please get in touch. There is a fee involved and you would be responsible to take down and re-hang members artwork.

We're in search of a new venue to hold our monthly gatherings, until then we will be holding them at Carol's home. The next one will be a critique. Please let Carol know if you are planning to attend, that way she's knows how many to expect in her home.

The fall season is here which means our fall award show is around the corner! Have you thought about which piece you would like to submit?

We are in need of volunteers to help with the fall award show evening at Nectar. Please let us know if you are willing to help out.

Hope you are enjoying the beautiful autumn colours as they can be very inspiring.

Keep creating!

Tashi Farmilo-Marouf,
OAA President

Gwendolyn Best Medieval Cats

Oct 9 - Nov 3, 2019

Opening: Thursday, October 10, from 6 – 10 pm

Gwendolyn Best was born in Montreal, but grew up in Boston, Massachusetts. She received her BSc (Arts) from Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs (New York) in 1974. Gwendolyn now makes her home in Ottawa, Canada. For sixteen years Gwendolyn furthered her artistic training in drawing, painting and sculpture at the Rudolf Steiner Institute in Northern New England. She has exhibited in Canada and the U.S., and has received numerous commissions to paint murals in private homes, as well as in several Ottawa Waldorf schools.

Her influences include Rudolf Steiner's colour theory and the work of Francis Bacon, Edward Hopper and Charles Burchfield. Gwendolyn had avoided using black in her painting for many years, but now likes the abstract sign-like quality of a black figure on a simplified yet nuanced ground. Gwendolyn likes to paint intensively, often for a whole day at a time, and sometimes well into the night, without stopping.

Her studio in Ottawa is a light-filled room featuring one large window, and this is where her mysterious yet loveable creatures see the light of day. Gwendolyn has just recently burst onto the Ottawa art scene, and her iconic cats, rats and ravens have caught the imagination of art lovers in Ottawa and further abroad. In fact, she cannot seem to paint them fast enough to keep up with demand!

WALL SPACE GALLERY

Body Work

Show dates: October 5 - 26, 2019

Artists Opening Reception: Saturday, October 5 from 5-7 pm

WALL SPACE GALLERY is excited to announce Body of Work: Featuring new figurative works by Gosia, David Lidbetter, Vanessa McKernan, and Stan Wany. Our fascination with the human form is a timeless engagement. The figure as a subject shows the duality of our physiological fundamentals and our psychological expanse. Just as we are animals, we are art. In this place - our chaotic world - how does the body move, feel, play, seek refuge? From where are we nourished? We invite four regional artists to explore the human figure in their respective mediums and to share in our enchantment of all things body.
