PRESIDENT'S COMMENTS

The awards show was a big success both aesthetically and financially. We had thirteen sales grossing over $4,000! Congratulations to all the award recipients and selling artists.

At the January meeting the Executive decided to loosen the current restriction limiting the size of a painting to 30 x 40 inches. Beginning in February it will be limited to a maximum of 40 inches in either direction (including frame). Not only will this simplify things, it also prevents the anomaly whereby, for example, a 32 x 32 is disallowed, even though it is smaller than a 30 x 40.

Doreen Dyet was appointed as Treasurer, replacing Joseph Coban, whose two year term ended in December. Many thanks go to Joseph for all of his help. We are now looking for a volunteer to replace Doreen as Assistant Treasurer. Please let me or Doreen know if you are able to help.

Our guest speaker in February will be Ryan Kane. He will discuss photographing art and provide tips on how to maximize your photos whether you use a sophisticated DSLR camera, a point and shoot or smart phone. Ryan is the Store Manager of Henry's Photo in Orleans. In addition to photography, he also paints and draws in various media.

Comments from the Gallery Hanging Coordinator

A few suggestions were brought to my attention by the volunteer hangers at our last hanging. We would be most grateful for your attention to the following checks:

- Make sure wiring on the back of your work is secure.
- Ends of the wires must be wrapped with tape for safety.
- Allow an adequate amount of 'paper'/canvas' under the edges of your framing.
- Mats and frames must be in perfect shape
- Clearly write the title and your name on the back of the painting and make sure that the information on the registration form is clearly and neatly printed. (Please take the time to do this as it is difficult, time consuming and open to errors when we need to decipher the forms.)

We have less hanging space this year as the Ottawa Little Theatre is celebrating its 100th Anniversary with displays in the lower lobby area. Our last hanging was a challenge, so we are asking that you bring just ONE piece of work for each of the remaining hangings this year.
